Juniper the hedgehog has slept through every Christmas of her life...

...until a tiny star lands with a THUMP right outside her door.

Glimmer has fallen from the sky, and if she isn't home by midnight, Santa won't find Hollyberry Village!

With a brave heart, a brand-new scarf, and a little help from her friends, Juniper sets off to light the way home.

A cozy, glowing Christmas Eve story about kindness, friendship, and how even the smallest of us can help the light shine. Perfect for bedtime.
