The Missing Star

It was Christmas Eve at the North Pole, and the whole village sparkled.

Santa looked up at his enormous Christmas tree and gasped. “Oh my snowflakes! My golden star is gone!”

Pip the little fox stepped forward. “Don't worry, Santa. We'll find it!”

“We'll help too!” said Mimi, Bramble and Tinsel.

Look for clues on every page, and find all the hidden objects along the way!

Psst! Our friends' own scarves, hats, jumpers, noses and bells don't count.

Santa's Toy Workshop

First stop: Santa's Toy Workshop! Hammers tapped and paintbrushes swished.

“Look!” whispered Mimi. Something shiny lay on a workbench.

It was a golden feather. “A clue!” said Pip.

Candy Cane Village

Next they hurried to Candy Cane Village. The streets smelled of peppermint!

“Mmm, gingerbread,” sniffed Bramble. “Focus, Bramble!” giggled Tinsel.

Then Pip saw a tiny golden sparkle shaped just like a star. “The star came this way!”

The Reindeer Stable

In the Reindeer Stable, everyone was getting ready for the big night.

“This is where I live!” said Tinsel proudly.

Tucked in the straw was another golden feather. “Who keeps dropping feathers?” wondered Mimi.

Snowflake Forest

The friends tiptoed into Snowflake Forest. Snow sparkled on every branch.

“Feathers… and a falling star,” said Mimi slowly. “I think a little bird is part of this mystery!”

Santa's Gift Room

In Santa's Gift Room, ribbons and wrapping paper were everywhere!

Bramble tried to peek inside a box. “No peeking!” laughed Tinsel.

Behind a drum, Pip found another twinkle of stardust. “We're getting closer!”

The Gingerbread Bakery

Sniff, sniff! Bramble led the way to the Gingerbread Bakery. Warm treats cooled on every shelf.

“Just one little taste?” asked Bramble.

Then everyone gasped. A golden feather was floating in through the window!

The Frozen Ice Lake

The feather drifted toward the Frozen Ice Lake, where penguins were sliding in swirly circles.

Tinsel tried sliding too... wheee! All the way across on her tummy!

Everyone laughed. And there on the ice glimmered another golden feather.

Northern Lights Hill

Up on Northern Lights Hill, the sky danced green and purple.

Two little rabbits were fast asleep in the snow. “Shh!” whispered Mimi.

On the hilltop lay one more golden feather, pointing back toward town!

Christmas Tree Square

Back in Christmas Tree Square, everyone was busy decorating.

Pip looked high. Pip looked low. Then he heard a tiny “Tweet!” from a snowy fir tree nearby.

“Follow me,” he whispered.

Goldie's Secret

In the branches of the fir tree sat a tiny nest. Bramble lifted Pip up to see.

Inside was a tiny golden bird, and beside her, safe and sound, was Santa's golden star!

“Did you take the star?” Pip asked gently.

“Oh no,” peeped the bird. “I'm Goldie. The wind blew the star off the tree. I flew all over the village looking for a safe place to keep it, and I lost a few feathers on the way!”

The Christmas Celebration

Santa smiled his warmest smile. “Thank you, Goldie. You kept my star safe, and that was very kind.”

Santa lifted Pip high, and Pip placed the star on top of the tree. It glowed brighter than ever!

“Will you join our celebration, Goldie?” asked Santa. “Yes, please!” she chirped.

And the whole village cheered.
